Call for Papers

1st Annual

Fort Abraham Lincoln
Undergraduate History Conference

July 16 - July 18, 2010
Mandan, ND

The Fort Abraham Lincoln Foundation is hosting an undergraduate history conference in conjunction with its annual Fort Lincoln History Symposium. The conference welcomes submissions examining the history of the West, though preference will be given to papers on regional topics related to the Northern Plains.

Submission Deadline:
May 15, 2010

Submission Criteria:
• Participants need to have been an undergraduate student during the 2009-2010 academic year and not yet attended graduate school
• Submissions must be original work
• Submissions should not exceed 15 pages in length
• Submissions must include a cover page (the title of the paper, the student’s name and academic affiliation)
• Submissions must be formatted to Chicago style
• Only electronic submissions will be accepted

Email submissions to: conference@fortlincoln.org

Applicants will be notified by June 15.

Go to the Conference!
If your submission is accepted to be presented at this year’s conference:
• Registration is $50 and includes an evening banquet on July 16, and lunch on July 17 & 18. Registration must be paid by July 1.
• Conference participants will also receive complimentary tours of the historic sites at Fort Abraham Lincoln State Park, and a cruise on the Lewis & Clark Riverboat
• Guests of participants may attend the conference presentations free of charge, and may purchase tickets for the meals.
• Travel, hotel accommodations, and other meals are at the participant’s expense.

For more information visit www.fortlincoln.com, or email conference@fortlincoln.org

Where History Comes to life